It is also noted for its picturesque, natural beauties, its fine harbor for yachting, its bold cliffs and beautiful country surroundings.

BREED THEATRE

"The Peasant Prince," Brilliant Feature Picture.

Among the many excellent motion pictures secured for exhibition at the Bred theatre today is the famous, stupendous setting of the old days in southern France, when knighthood was yet in flower, and the knights exercised their difference by their swords. This clever story of a most strategic wooing by proxy, is delightful in its novelty, and the gorgeous costumes are the admiration of all.

The ever popular biograph cast is to the front again, and appear in one of the prettiest dramas yet set. "The Friend of the Family," and deals with the persuasive influence of a female friend who is bent on getting at the heart of the matter. The story is the difference by their swords. This clever story of a most strategic wooing by proxy, is delightful in its novelty, and the gorgeous costumes are the admiration of all.

Lincoln Park.

Tonight's Rocket Night—Be There by 10:05.

Tonight is slated for the second of the feature nights at Lincoln park. The first of the week was a night of the roman candles and fireworks. This time the display will be principally rockets, and tonight has been designated as rocket night by the management, which is in announcing the event, that the display should prove well worth seeing. The regular evening show, commencing at 8:30, will end at 9:45, and the will come a children's show for dancing in the pavilion and for strolling about the grounds. The first rocket will be sent up at 10:05 sharp, and the show will be out of the way by 10:30. The last car for the city leaves the park station at 11:05. It gets to the square at 11:35.

The show in Rustic theater this week, which yesterday succeeded in getting under way after a 48-hour holdup on account of the weather, is a grand good show. Lew "Kip" Reed, the monologist, is at home in a dozen characters and his "Monkey Honey-moon" is full of laughter. The Irish character sketches of Adams and Kelly are a treat and the singing of Mae Kelly is excellent. Mavolo, the wire juggler, performs dozens of artistic and mystifying feats and is a tip-top entertainer in his particular line. Morrow and Helma have a merry minstrel act, full of clever jokes and songs. That make a hit. Rice and Elmer in "A Rub in Chinatown" are execrably funny. Mr. B. being a capital chairman and Mr. Elmer a night provoking country greenhorn who goes out to see the sights of the city.

Sunday the usual free concert will come at 3:30.
